

Capital City Public Charter School
Washington DC

Shinberg.Levinas | Architectural Design
Photography: Shinberg.Levinas

The project consisted of a renovation & major addition to a 1912 masonry bank building. Our challenge included integrating an efficient fluorescent design into spaces which visually and physically opened from the old building to new modern areas, each having different lighting considerations. Budgets were extremely tight, but through judicious locations of light, saturated color finishes were enhanced with minimal strain on construction and operations resources.

