

David Taylor Research Center
 Annapolis, MD

Ehrenkrantz Ekstut & Kuhn, Architects
 O'Doherty Landscape Architects

46 acres of a former military base facing the Severn River are being developed into a corporate office park. The master lighting plan was created for the land use permits submitted to Anne Arundel County. The design included using a 'family of fixtures' for the open structure parking garages, primary and secondary vehicular roads as well as pedestrian circulation criteria. Subtly changing lights at the parking garage towers were proposed as architectural time clocks.

