

Freddie Mac
Main Street, Building 1
McLean, VA

Ai architecture

Lighting on one side of a renovated main corridor was possible through programming art locations and designing partial dropped ceiling panels to conceal both ambient and art accent light. General ambient light was achieved through metal halide master color sources and art accents with MR16 halogen. The Metal Halide source was repeated in special feature areas to balance the rendering of the floor surfaces through out the project. Pantry lighting is provided with recessed halogen and decorative pendants.

