

Goldstein Residence
Bethesda, MD

Shinberg.Levinas | Architectural Design
Photographer: Timothy Bell &
Shinberg.Levinas | Architectural Design

A curvilinear feature wood wall is illuminated with exhibition quality halogen lighting artfully integrated into exposed framing, adding a contemporary addition to this rich library of featured wood products. Exterior lighting fixtures are employed in both interior and exterior spaces to emphasize connections between interior and exterior, landscape and architecture. Custom painted, surface mounted fixtures for wall-washing and square trimmed units for down-lighting articulate the wood ceiling, adding cohesiveness to the overall project.

