

Heritage Foundation
Washington, DC

Richard Wieboldt & Associates
Photography: Gaspar Glusberg

The renovation of two floors included a new 200 seat auditorium with multiple lighting systems for different functions, a double height outer lobby, boardroom, and workspaces. In the Auditorium, standard fluorescent biax lamps in coves, halogen downlights, and Surface mounted projectors are controlled remotely from a control room dimming system to respond to the various auditorium events including live CSPAN coverage and panelist speakers.

