

Private Residence
Washington DC

Shinberg/Levinas Architectural Design

A new entrance was developed when two apartments were joined together in a building overlooking the Potomac river. Metaphors of a river were used in creating the custom glass and light sculpture. Four fiberoptic strips connected separately to a preset dimming system, enabled endless and dynamic changes to the back lighted glass panel.

Plan - Glass Light Sculpture