

St. David's Episcopal Church
Ashburn, VA

Gregg Uekmann Architects
Photography: Prakesh Patel

Faceted segments of two-circuit track were integrated into the sloped truss structure of this new church construction. Multiple dimming groups were developed to create numerous lighting "scenes" and maximize flexibility. An internally lighted cupola provides a strong nocturnal image of sanctuary within.

