

USDA Graduate School
Washington, DC

Core Architects
Photography: Michael Moran

This 70,000 sq. ft. teaching facility involved a building entry, the renovation of four floors, and the consolidation of remote classrooms. Fluorescent sources were used throughout and dimmable fluorescent fixtures aided the computer intensive classrooms.

