

The World Bank
Latin American and Caribbean
Conference Center
Washington, DC

Forma Design
Photography: Geoffrey Hodgdon

The large conference room in this suite of state-of-the-art video conference facilities accommodates a variety of table layouts. An array of linear fluorescent fixtures provided general ambient light with maximum flexibility in room configuration while recessed adjustable halogen accents provided frontal light for the camera. Reception and breakout areas include lights for changing art exhibits.

